

STATE REPRESENTATIVE TED VOGT FOR LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT 10

- ★ Appointed to the Legislature in Mar. 2010, Ted Vogt was elected overwhelmingly to the Arizona House of Representatives on Nov. 2, 2010.
- ★ Though only in his first full term, Ted has proven himself to be an effective legislator.
- ★ Ted helped reduced government spending and balance Arizona’s balance for the first time in five years. Today, Arizona enjoys a budget surplus.
- ★ Ted reduced taxes and burdensome regulation, creating an environment where businesses can flourish.
- ★ A champion of public safety, Ted introduced and passed legislation cracking down on human smuggling, strengthening victims’ rights, and tackling the issue of mental health and public safety.
- ★ Committed to our women and men in uniform, Ted introduced and passed legislation granting automatic in-state tuition at Arizona’s universities to any honorably discharged veteran.
- ★ Ted is a former Air Force Intelligence Officer and a veteran of Operation Enduring Freedom (Afghanistan) and Operation Iraqi Freedom (Iraq).
- ★ Prior to joining the Air Force, Ted worked in the private sector as an investment banker, advertising executive, and as assistant to then-former Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld.
- ★ Ted has a B.A. from Yale and a J.D. from the University of Arizona. He practices law in Tucson.
